Thank you:

I am so grateful to the people in our community who continue to support our small library. We recently received some large donations that have enabled us to purchase a copy machine and money toward purchasing computers. Thank you so very much! Your kindness and thoughtfulness is overwhelming.

Programs for Kids:

Every Wednesday after school program 2-4 pm.

Join us on the early out days for books, crafts and snacks! Saturday, February 8th we will be holding a kids valentines program at 10 am.

Lego Day: Wednesday,

February 19th 2-4 we will be assembling lego sets! We will have lego sets at the library, but if someone has a set they would like to work on – bring it!

Coffee and Conversation:

Join us every Friday morning at 10 for a cup of coffee and a little conversation while working on a puzzle or project. The coffee will be ready and a new puzzle will be in the works!

New Books:

A few of our recent arrivals include: “Amber Alert” by Kiki Swinson; “Beg, Borrow, or Steal” by Sarah Adams; “Defy” by Sunita Sah; “Grave Danger” by James Grippando; “Lawbreaker” by Diana Palmer; “Now or Never” by Janet Evanovich; “Robert B. Parker’s Hot Property” by Mike Lupica; “See How They Hide” by Allison Brennan; “Shattering Dawn” by Jayne Ann Krentz; “Trial by Fire” by Danielle Steel; “What the Wife Knew” by Darby Kane; “Where the Creek Bends” by Linda Lael Miller; “You’ll Never Find Me” by Allison Brennan; “Wicked” by Gregory Maguire and “Dog Man 13” by Dav Pilkey.

I am “patiently” waiting for additional new arrivals from some of our favorite authors: Freida McFadden and James Patterson.

If you have any recommendations, please send them my way!

Library Trivia:

During the last 3 months 272 items have been checked out from our library and 234 ebooks or audio books have been checked out from our Libby App! Good job readers!
